Goaltender Philippe Ozga joins Stingers

Kevin Figsby, head coach of the Concordia men's hockey team, is pleased to announce the addition of goaltender Philippe Ozga to the Stingers' roster.

Ozga, 20, comes to Concordia after a prestigious three season assignment in the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League. He spent the 1998-'99 season with the QMJHL champion Acadie-Bathurst Titan and then suited up with the Victoriaville Tigers in 1999-2000 and for nine games last fall. Overall, he played 81 games, posting a record of 35 wins, 33 losses and five ties. His goals-against average was 3.83.

"Phil brings a lot of experience to the team, especially having played for a Memorial Cup team (Acadie Bathurst)," said Figsby. "With Phil and Francis Gourdeau we have a solid foundation in net. Now we can build outward."

For Ozga the chance to play with friends and to pursue his interests in politics made Concordia a natural choice.

"I knew the coach, I knew a lot of the players on the Stingers from the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League and the university has a good political science program," explained Ozga. "Everything was a good match for me."

The Ottawa native suited up for his first game in a Stinger uniform on the weekend. Playing in his hometown, Ozga defeated the Ottawa Gee-Gees 6-2. He stopped 29 of 31 shots in the contest.

Other new faces on the Stingers this January are left wing Geoff Comeau from Greenfield Park, Que., and David Comeau, a centre from Lorraine, Que., who spent five seasons in the QMJHL, mostly with the Moncton Wildcats. In 280 major junior games, he collected 80 goals and 134 assists for 214 points. Comeau has been with Concordia since September, but injuries kept him sidelined. He played his first two games as a Stinger last week, picking up one goal and one assist.

Concordia Athletes of the Week

Tamara Medwidsky of the wrestling team and Real Kitieu of the men's basketball team have been named Concordia Stinger athletes of the week for the period ending Jan. 14.

Medwidsky, an MBA student, won a gold medal at the Queen's University Invitational Wrestling Tournament on Sunday. The Toronto native competed in the 70 kg. weight class. Medwidsky has a long list of wrestling accomplishments, including representing Canada at the World Championships in 1998. She was named Concordia's outstanding female athlete last spring.

Kitieu, a centre, was impressive in two weekend contests. In Concordia's 77-71 win over .ayerson, he had 19 points, 12 rebounds and seven blocks. The following day in a 81-73 loss to Toronto, he collected 23 points, an amazing 21 rebounds and five blocks. The native of Douala, Cameroon is a fourth-year economics major.
